"I WANT MY DAUGHTER TO BE A TOUGH WOMAN AND MAYBE ONE DAY, THE PRIME MINISTER! "

MARY ANWAT

CITY OF MELTON WOMEN
MAKING IT HAPPEN!

Mary is a Sudanese woman who has called Australia home for the last fourteen years. Mary's grandmother taught her how to basket weave and she now teaches other women her craft. She is very thankful for this skill as it helps her to stay connected to her culture and pass this on to future generations. Mary named her youngest daughter Julia, after Julia Gillard, because she wants her to be a strong woman.
