

MELTON CITY COUNCIL

A PROUD COMMUNITY GROWING TOGETHER

KOROROIT CREEK PRECINCT

A public-private partnership with State Government and Council delivers vital infrastructure that supports a growing community.

CHILDREN'S & COMMUNITY CENTRE

Project value: $3.9M
Architect: Graypuksand
Builder: Abi Group

SPORTS PAVILION

Project value: $2.7M
Completed: 2010
Architect: Freeform
Builder: Dura Constructions

NATURAL PLAY SPACE

Project value: $700K
Completed: 2011
Architect: Laidlaw & Laidlaw
Builder: Botanical Landscape Solutions

Cooperative partnership helps bring project to life

The Kororoit Creek Precinct is a place where the Burnside Heights community readily accesses a range of recreation facilities and essential early years services.

A public-private partnership with State Government has delivered quality infrastructure aimed at supporting the needs of the community now and well into the future.

Partnerships are vital for the development of major community projects and the Kororoit Creek Precinct has become a leading example of a successful partnership delivery model.

Key features

- Children's & Community Centre
- Primary School
- Inclusive flexible multiuse spaces
- Learn-to-swim facilities on-site
- Two sports ovals
- A sports pavilion
- A fully fenced sporting cube
- A natural play space designed by award-winning landscape architect, Andrew Laidlaw

Funding Partners

Department of Education & Training, Victorian Government - $500k
Sport & Recreation Victoria, Victorian Government - $750k
Department of Infrastructure & Regional Development, Australian Government - $654k

