

Aliens take over Melton Shire.

It was a boring, ordinary Tuesday. I was studying at the library, using one of the textbooks. I was bored, I looked at the news on my phone. "EMERGENCY BROADCAST": There are Humanoid creatures labeled as an alien taking over the shire. "We have blocked off roads entering and exiting Melton and

Melton Shire, no body is to leave their homes.” The article read. At once I called my friend to come over “Hey Jess if you heard about the news you’d better come over”. Mums installed a stove and fridge in our bunker. Plus, we have a lot of creamed corn that would last us for years” I spoke. “Yeah, Kathrine. I will be over soon. If I don’t come, you will know what’s happened.” I hung up, but then I realized, I was stuck in the library! Should I make a run for it?! One of the creatures was already in the library, I saw it out of the corner of my eye and I could hear horrible panting, gurgling sounds. I dropped to my knees and started crawling in between the dusty book shelves. I saw a window in front of me. I grabbed some chairs and stood on them. I quietly opened the window lock, pushed the window up enough for me to get through. As I was lowering myself down to the footpath outside I looked up - It saw me! It was wrinkly, and it had peach skin. Its slobber was all over its body. Its teeth were so big and sharp they looked like butchers knives. I couldn't believe what I was seeing. It ran to me, taking the biggest strides like three metres in one step! I let go of the window sill not even worried about how hard I'd fall onto the concrete beneath me. I really hurt my when I landed, but it didn't stop me from getting up and running as fast as I could, The building was so big that I got lost going around it. I flagged down a passing car and jumped in. The lovely man dropped me off at home, I thanked him. I quietly opened the door so mum wouldn't be alarmed. I was so grateful to see my mum, jess and her mum standing there. I started yelling. "I saw the creature! I think the creature followed me!" Mum hugged me. "Honey, we have food, and water that could last us for years! Just here, take this and put everything you need inside. It was a blue bag and pink suitcase. I scurried to my room and shoved everything I could into the suitcase and bag. I took my stuff down to the bunker at the end of the backyard I can't believe I thought dad was going crazy when he built this thing, little did we know aliens would take over Melton shire. I kissed my baby brother and shut the bunker door. Then, I stopped in my tracks, the alien found us as the doors were banging violently, its slime was oozing through the door cracks as we held each other tightly. All of a sudden, the doors were ripped from the hinges, we didn't have the voice to scream we knew this was it.....
